

Illness Check List

Disease/Health Condition	Details pertaining to condition	May return to school under these conditions...
Fever	101° F or greater	-Fever free for 24 hours -Doctor's note stating that the condition is not contagious, and date when they may return to school.
Diarrhea	2 or more watery stools in a 24 hour period	-Diarrhea free for 24 hours -Doctor's note stating that the condition is not contagious, and date when they may return to school.
Vomiting	2 or more occasions	-No vomiting for 24 hours -Doctor's note stating that the condition is not contagious, and date when they may return to school.
Undiagnosed rash	Body rash that is not caused by diapering, heat or medication.	-Rash must be completely gone -Doctor's note stating that the condition is not contagious, and date when they may return to school.
Sore throat	Is associated with fever or swollen glands in the neck	-Symptom free for 24 hours -Doctor's note stating that the condition is not contagious, and date when they may return to school.
Severe cough	Coughing that leads to repeated gagging, vomiting or difficulty breathing.	-Condition has significantly minimalized or is gone -Doctor's note stating that the condition is not contagious, and date when they may return to school.
Conjunctivitis (Pink eye)	Pink or red eye(s) that may be swollen with white or yellow discharge	-Must be on antibiotics for 24 hours
Scabies, head lice, nits	Tiny insects living on human scalp and/or hair shaft	-Treatment and removal of all bugs and nits
Mouth sores	Multiple sores in mouth with drooling	-Doctor's note stating that the condition is not contagious, and date when they may return to school.
Ring worm	Circular fungal infection of the scalp or skin	-Treatment by a healthcare provider has begun
Impetigo	Skin infection mostly seen on face with bumps or large patchy areas	-24 hours of treatment
Hand, Foot and Mouth	Rash mostly seen on face, hands, bottom and feet	-fever free for 24 hours -rash must be free from spreading -Or doctor's note stating the condition is not contagious and date when they may return to school
Other	Any contagious disease	-Doctor's recommendation